Dear [redacted]

Your helpful support has been missed, and I was especially concerned when I learned the reason for your absence. My heartfelt sympathy to you on the loss of your mother.

[redacted] has been involved in a major effort which only reached a climax Tuesday, and while we appreciate and have come to expect the level of performance he sustained in this exercise, it obviously came at a time when he would have preferred to have been at your side. You have our sympathy and prayers.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
